

Farm and Field: The Rural Folk Arts of the Catskill Region

Sunday March 26, 2017
New York Folklore Society
129 Jay Street - Schenectady
Meet artist Kathryn Bruning
12 to 2 PM

Kathryn Bruning, of Caprendoose Hill Farms in Washington County will offer a hands-on demonstration of wool "felting," a process of matting wool together. Ms. Bruning's demonstration is a companion program to the photographs of local farms and related subjects by photojournalist Benjamin Halpern, a collaborative initiative among the New York Folklore Society, Cornell Cooperative Extension of Delaware County, and Catskill Folk Connection, to document and showcase the rural folk arts rooted in the agricultural heritage of New York State.

The photography exhibit will be on display thru Memorial Day.

Funding made possible in part by a grant from the Schenectady County Legislature through its County Initiative Program.
