

Yule Log Tasting Party and Folk "POP UP" Gallery Shop!

to Benefit the New York Folklore Society

When: Tuesday, December 17, 2013 from 5:30 - 8:00 p.m.

Where: The NEW headquarters of City Lore 56 East 1st Street, New York, NY

New York Folklore Society's Yule Log Party and Folk Art "Pop Up Shop"

We will have festive foods - including a Yule Log - and beautiful handmade folk art from many communities in New York State.

Come see the wonderful traditional pieces made in the state and meet and greet friends and colleagues who share a passion for traditional culture. This member's event is free. Bring a friend to introduce to the New York Folklore Society!

Artists (and counties) represented include the following: Herbert Boesenberg (Nassau); Bernard Domingo (Westchester); Walt Fleming (Saratoga); Rosemary Hill (Niagara); Carol Lukovich (Broome); George Olsen (Schoharie); Rudolf Rozenblyum (Brooklyn); Mark Swanberry (Schoharie); and Newcomer artists from Utica's Karen community

We hope to see you there! RSVP via Facebook, email, or call the New York Folklore Society at (518) 346-7008.

Hosted by Kay Turner, New York Folklore Society Board Member with Ellen McHale, Executive Director, New York Folklore Society

PS: Checks and Credit Cards will be accepted for Gallery Sales. All proceeds directly benefit the artists and the New York Folklore Society.
