

For Immediate Release

Contact: Ellen McHale, Executive Director
New York Folklore Society
(518) 346-7008

“Let the Good Times (and Folk Art) Roll” is the theme of the New York Folklore Society’s upcoming benefit event on June 30, 2012 which features the Bluegrass music of Dyer Switch and the Cajun inspired cuisine of Cafe’ Nola.

From 2:00 – 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, June 30th, Cafe’ Nola, located at 617 Union Street, Schenectady, will play host to a line-up of musical entertainment that includes the award-winning Bluegrass band, Dyer Switch and the duo, “2 Lonesome,” along with other friends and musicians. The New York Folklore Society will be offering a silent auction of folk art. Diners may attend at any time with a portion of the cost of their meals being donated by Cafe’ Nola to the New York Folklore Society. Dinner reservations are strongly suggested to ensure seating.

For further information, contact the New York Folklore Society at (518) 346-7008. Dinner reservations can be made by calling Cafe’ Nola at (518) 357-8628.

Links for Press Photos or Information:

Cafe’ Nola: <http://www.cafenolany.com>

Dyer Switch: <http://dyerswitch.com/home.html>

2 Lonesome: http://dyerswitch.com/2_lonesome.html